Through the years we sometimes forget
 How we all exactly met
 We've stuck it out through thick and thin
 And now we're closer than we've ever been.
 G.I. Joe's and Barbie Dolls
 Soon made way for basketballs
 Riding trikes and climbing trees
 Could never measure up those sacred car keys.
 From the semi-formal to the Prom,
 The memories created will forever live on.
 Now we are going our own separate ways
 But we'll always remember our younger year days.

Sea of Love

*Anticipation, Preparation and dedication.
Led to a night full of fun;
There was much excitement in the air
on April 27 th nineteen hundred and ninety one.*

*With clicking cameras at their sides,
the couples entered two by two;
Arm and arm with their date
they strolled into the ocean blue.*

*Mermaids, fish and sunken ships made the gymnasium sparkle and shine;
Dancing, food and photographs
Kept everybody feeling fine.*

*As the DJ played the final song
we realized it was time to depart;
The Sea of Love rippled out like the tide,
but the memories stay close at heart.*

KALOPAKUS AND THE DULUXEBOROUGH GRAINS

*'Twas a bobbly tike,
sworn Kalopakus by name,
that blowed bubbly breaths,
unto the Duluxeborough grains.*

*"Study, you bastard!", pugnacious pop's had preached,
"Meddle yer bottom 'n getcher arse off the beach!!"*

*'Twas huskish, 'Twas broad,
the first teach that tike met,
and to heckle 'n hell
and to hell the tike'd fret.*

*Then on to the Junior,
Now off to the High,
Did once squiggly youngsome
now fret upon bye?*

*"No, No...", cried Kalop,
as an eye gently wept,
"I shall forever remember days
good learnt and well spent,
Amongst the grains of Duluxeborough High"*

By Nick Anzivino

Robert Hale and his new friend

*Jamie, Jill and Tanja. Hey Tanya, your hair

FOOTBALL

The 1991 season started out with a bang, The Dragons defeated Rockland 32-6! This was just a beginning of great things to come. We went on to win 2 straight, then suffered a tough defeat against Randolph. We concluded the season with a tough battle for the Atlantic Coast League championship on Thanksgiving.

BOYS SOCCER

The boys team didn't have a banner year as usual. Even though the boys suffered 3 tough losses at the hands of Div. 1 foes Bridgewater-Rayhnam and Silver Lake and league opponent Hingham, they didn't rebound to win the Atlantic Coast League. The boys are on a roll in the league as they've won it 5 straight years. They defeated archrival Marshfield twice, but when tournament time came the boys weren't up to the task as they fell, the rebels of Walpole 3-2 in double overtime.
